

1741 CH Mid-Small-Cap-Index Active Plus

September 2024

Investment objective

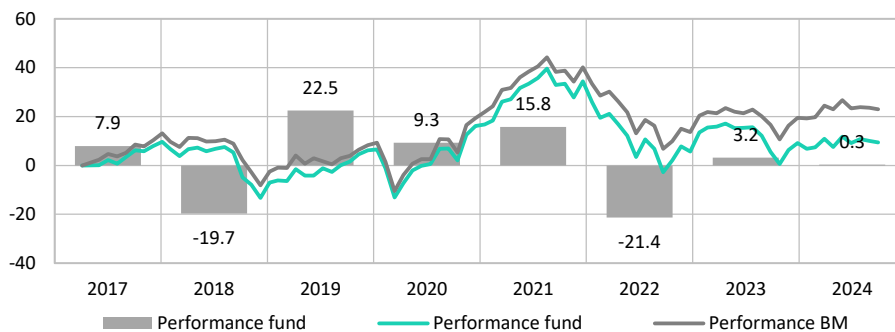

The fund invests mainly in securities of companies domiciled in Switzerland or listed on the Swiss stock market. Stocks are selected exclusively from the Small & Mid-Cap sectors defined by SIX Swiss Exchange. The stock selection is active but basically along the lines of the SPI Mid- and SPI Small-Cap-Index respectively. Individual sectors and companies can be overweighted or underweighted relative to the index, or omitted altogether. Not more than 10% of the fund's total assets may be invested in the securities of the same company (calculated at the market value at the time of investment).

Suitability

The fund is suitable as a long-term investment in small and mid-cap companies in the Swiss equity market. It offers our clients the opportunity to participate, virtually on an indextracking basis and therefore with a good spread, in the performance of Swiss small and mid-cap companies. Used as a component in mandates, this can reduce risk and generally boost risk-adjusted performance.

Past performance, especially over short periods, does not predict future returns.
