VIA Smart-Equity World (CHF / FX-hedged)

Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) : Article 8

Investment objectives & strategy

VIA Smart-Equity World is a UCITS fund invested in Global Equities through a systematic approach. Its strategy consists in selecting liquid global developed and emerging markets companies with the best value creation profile from a shareholder's point of view that have at the same time high profitability, good perspectives and have relatively inexpensive valuations. In order to better account for the economic reality of the stocks, their accounting data are normalized prior to assess their fundamentals. The portfolio is reviewed monthly to ensure proper reactivity, but it is rebalanced only by fraction to limit timing dependency and slippage. The strategy is implemented mostly through the purchase of stocks, but derivatives may also be used to reduce risk and enhance performance.

Managers' update

Markets: after a very positive first quarter, global equity markets are taking a break. They show a performance of -3.2% for the MSCI ACWI Market Cap and -1.2% for the Equal Weight version. Over the first four months of the year, we can nevertheless note the marked underperformance of the average capitalization at +0.5%, compared to +4.6% for the Market Cap index. In April, the change in "atmosphere" seemed to be linked to a disappointment in the expectations of central banks to relax. In this context, the VIA Smart Equity World fund underperforms its benchmark, with a monthly decline of 4.4% (SI-USD), but it has maintained a significant lead since the start of the year.

Factors and Stock Selection (relative to the Market Cap. benchmark): in April, the factor contributions emerged in positive territory, mainly due to overexposure to the Value factor. But sectoral exposure is less favourable, notably with underexposure to the Materials.

The stock selection showed a negative contribution, notably with the sharp declines of stocks such as Tenaris or Icon at -15% and -11% respectively over the month. The first disappoints on its margin forecasts of less than 25%, the second on expectations of results for the coming quarters. The underweight of the Big Tech, which proved positive, couldn't compensate.

The latest monthly selection is always very diverse, ranging from Microsoft to Taiwanese semiconductor companies, including a Brazilian bank, like Banco do Brasil, with a PER of 4x and a RoE close to 20%.

Outlook: There are very different approaches to successful long-term equity investing. In contrast to passive management that selects and weights stocks based on their sizes, we prefer a two-step approach, betting that if we can select companies capable of offering the maximum wealth creation for shareholders, then the portfolio's market value will follow suit. Despite the volatility displayed during multiple contraction/expansion phases, this "super factor" explains much of the long-term equity market performance. Moreover, when markets deviate from their economic performance, it generally presents investment or divestment opportunities. With the VIA Smart Equity World fund, we adopt a diversified, Buy & Hold approach with the goal of maximizing value creation over the long run. As such, the fund exhibits relatively satisfactory fundamentals with a 25% economic profitability (Economic Profitability) for a 15.6x economic PER (FEV/Economic Assets/Economic Profitability), while ensuring a significant diversification with more than 220 different positions.

Please find the VIA leap® monthly report, measure of the fund's real economic performance here. This reporting, unique in the world, intends to offer a measure of the wealth creation of our strategies, compared to the benchmark wealth creation and their respective Mark-to-Market performances.
