Objectives and investment universe

Asset class                      Equity
 Style                              Gestion active

The objective of BCV SPI 20 is to generate a capital gain over the long term. The fund invests in companies that are headquartered in Switzerland or conduct a predominant part of their business in Switzerland and are included in the SPI 20 index. The sub-fund has little diversification and seeks out the best investment opportunities through a management approach combining qualitative, fundamental, and behavioural analysis.

Class C: open to investors who subscribe and maintain a minimum of CHF 30 million.
