The objective of BCV SPI 20 is to generate a capital gain over the long term. The fund invests in companies that are headquartered in Switzerland or conduct a predominant part of their business in Switzerland and are included in the SPI 20 index. The sub-fund has little diversification and seeks out the best investment opportunities through a management approach combining gualitative, fundamental, and behavioural analysis.

ZP Class: open to investors within the meaning of Art. 38a al. WTO who have previously concluded a specific written agreement with BCV for separate payment of the remuneration for the management, asset management and the tasks of the depositary bank for the sub-fund.
