Review

CPI inflation in July moderated to 3.5% compared to 5.1% in June. Food and beverages inflation moderated to 5.1 (June: 8.4%) while fuel and light inflation contracted to -5.5% (June: -3.6%). Core inflation (CPI excluding food, fuel and light) stood at to 3.37% (June: 3.14%). The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) kept policy repo rate unchanged at 6.50%. The Reserve Bank of India retained its inflation forecasts of 4.5% and real GDP growth projection of 7.2% for FY25. The MPC continued to express comfort on domestic growth on the back of sustained manufacturing and services activity, healthy corporate balance sheets and continue government infrastructure spending. In the first quarter, FY25 real GDP growth stood at 6.7%, led by investment (Gross Fixed Capital Formation) growth of 7.5%. Government consumption contracted by 0.2% while private consumption growth stood at 7.4%. On the production side, Q1FY25 real GVA grew by 6.8%. Healthcare and industrials were the key outperforming and underperforming sectors respectively.

Outlook

Despite a weak start, the market ended with month-on-month gains as the sharp reaction to global events like employment data in the US and rate hike by Bank of Japan receded. The momentum in the domestic market is also supported by steady growth expectations, moderating outlook on inflation and healthy momentum as indicated by high frequency data points like GST collections, improvement in capacity utilization, power generation, exports of electronics and engineering products. The government continues to focus on infrastructure creation to establish pillars for long-term growth of the economy, and initiatives to promote domestic manufacturing that can have a multiplier effect through job creation. The policy emphasis is on capitalising on India's inherent advantage, a large domestic market, with the additional objective to step in to the global supply chain as an attractive manufacturing hub. India's long term growth potential remains intact stemming from its strong demographic advantage, strengthening manufacturing base, and rising participation in the global supply chain.
