

NPB Dynamic Fixed Income Fund (EUR)

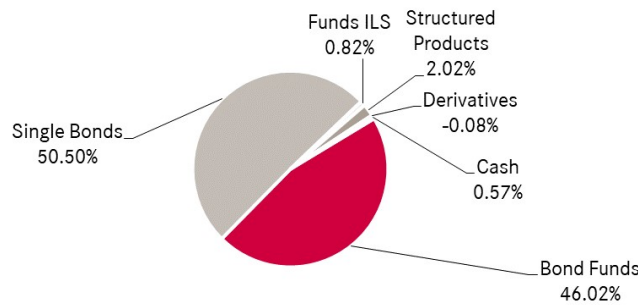

Update 31.10.2024

Fund Description

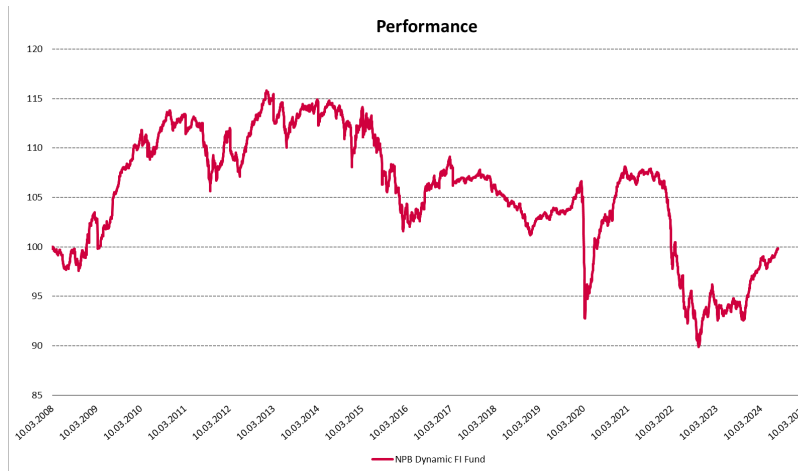

The NPB Dynamic Fixed Income Fund is a fund under Swiss law, categorised as „other fund for traditional investments“. The fund invests in a globally diversified portfolio of fixed income instruments, thereby making use of the diversification and earning potential of innovative fixed income strategies as a multi manager fund.

Investments are primarily made in a global fixed income core portfolio with high credit quality. Additionally, further fixed income investments focus on innovative strategies offering uncorrelated returns, e.g. insurance linked securities, structured interest rate products and alternative investments in the fixed income segment. The fund is suited for longer term investors, who will benefit from a carefully selected portfolio, offering a stable and better return than average fixed income investments. The currency risks in the fund are largely hedged.
