INVESTMENT POLICY

The Rising Stars fund aims to generate a superior risk-adjusted performance over a market cycle by holding a diversified portfolio of early-stage companies with sustainable economic moats and underpinned by secular growth drivers.

This high-conviction global equity UCITS fund invests, with a "buy and hold" approach, in companies in the early innings of their growth phase and benefiting from the ongoing paradigm shift driven by digital disruption, demographics and climate change.

POTENTIAL RISKS

The Fund's risk does not reflect the risk inherent in future circumstances that differ from what the Fund has experienced in the recent past. This includes the following events which are rare but can have a large impact.

- Liquidity risk: Assets cannot necessarily be sold at limited cost in an adequately short timeframe. The Fund's investments may be prone to limited liquidity. The Fund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by various measures.
- Counterparty risk: Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Fund's derivative counterparties may lead to payment or delivery default. The Subfund will endeavor to mitigate this risk by the receipt of financial collateral given as guarantees.
- Operational risk: Deficient processes, technical failures or catastrophic events may cause losses.
- Political and Legal risks: Investments are exposed to changes of rules and standards applied by a specific country. This includes restrictions on currency convertibility, the imposing of taxes or controls on transactions, the limitations of property rights or other legal risks. Investments in less developed financial markets may expose the Fund to increased operational, legal and political risk.

The product's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses, as well as more complete information about the product, are provided in the prospectus (or relevant offering document), which should be read carefully before investing.
