Benefits

Harnessing decarbonization as a source of potential outperformance, as companies from industries that emit the most carbon must find efficient ways to reduce their emissions.

Potential to increase outperformance as the fund's structure may deviate substantially from the reference index.

The fund is managed using the Global Equity team's price to intrinsic investment philosophy – an approach that has been applied since 1980.

Risks

UBS Climate Action invests in equities and may therefore be subject to high fluctuations in value. As this UBS fund pursues an active management style, performance can deviate substantially from that of its reference index. All investments are subject to market fluctuations. Every fund has specific risks, which can significantly increase under unusual market conditions. The fund can use derivatives, which may result in additional risks (particularly counterparty risk). This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before the recommended holding period disclosed in the PRIIPs KID, if available for this share class.

Please note that additional fees (e.g. entry or exit fees) may be charged. Please refer to your financial adviser for more details. Investors should read the Key Information Document, Prospectus and any applicable local offering document prior to investing and to get complete information of the risks. Investors are acquiring units or shares in a fund, and not in a given underlying asset such as building or shares of a company. For a definition of financial terms refer to the glossary available at www.ubs.com/am-glossary.

For marketing and information purposes by UBS. For professional clients / qualified investors only. UBS funds under Luxembourg law. Arrangements for marketing fund units mentioned in this document may be terminated at the initiative of the management company of the fund(s). Before investing in a product please read the latest prospectus and key information document or similar legal documentation carefully and thoroughly. Any decision to invest should take into account all the characteristics or objectives of the product as described in its prospectus, or similar legal documentation. Investors are acquiring units or shares in a fund, and not in a given underlying asset such as building or shares of a company.
