

Factsheet

Bellevue Funds (Lux) | Share class I EUR

 Investment Company with Variable Capital (SICAV) according to Luxembourg Laws – UCITS
 Marketing document - For professional investors: AT, CH, DE, ES, LU, HK

Investment focus

The fund's aim is to achieve capital growth in the long term, is actively managed and invests in listed owner-managed companies in Switzerland where an entrepreneur or a founder family holds at least a 20% of a company's voting rights. The qualities of these companies – a focused business model, fast decision-making processes and a strong corporate culture – go hand in hand with efficient innovation, high product quality and strong customer loyalty. The corresponding impact on the share price is demonstrably positive. The fund's Management Team offers a wealth of experience in this investment segment and has built up an extensive network with executives throughout the sector. It pursues a fundamental, bottom-up approach in identifying the most attractive founder-controlled companies with a small and mid market capitalization while maintaining an investment portfolio of 35 to 45 stocks diversified by sub-sector and style (Value, GARP, Growth). The fund takes ESG factors into consideration while implementing the aforementioned investment objectives.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results and can be misleading. As the fund is denominated in a currency that may differ than an investor's base currency, changes in the rate of exchange may have an adverse effect on prices and incomes. Performance is shown net of fees and expenses for the relevant share class over the reference period. All performance figures reflect the reinvestment of dividends and do not take into account the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of shares, if any. Individual costs are not taken into account and would have a negative impact on the performance. With an investment amount of EUR 1,000 over an investment period of five years, the investment result in the first year would be reduced by the front-end load of up to EUR 50 (5%) as well as by additional individual custody charges. In subsequent years, the investment result would also be reduced by the individual custody account costs incurred. The reference benchmark of this class is used for performance comparison purposes only (dividend reinvested). The funds is actively managed. No benchmark is directly identical to a fund, thus the performance of a benchmark is not a reliable indicator of future performance of the fund to which it is compared. There can be no assurance that a return will be achieved or that a substantial loss of capital will not be incurred.

Market review

Swiss small and mid caps, as measured by the SPIEX Index, were flat (-0.2%) in November, similar to the SPI (-0.3%). The US election was the main event with the victory of D. Trump and the Republican in control of the two chambers. US equities bounced back, with US small caps (+10.2%) outperforming large caps (S&P +5.3%). The EUR/USD fell temporarily to its lowest level since 2022. The global economic narrative remained generally positive, with the US confirming its strength, underpinned by good consumer confidence. In Europe, the Flash PMI for the Euro Area sequentially deteriorated to 48.1 vs 50 in October with both services and manufacturing now in contraction territory. In Switzerland the manufacturing PMI fell to 48.5 in November from 49.9 with services unchanged at 51.8, above the growth threshold for the second consecutive month. In terms of sector performances, communication services (+5.5%), financials (+4.9%) and real estate (+4.4%) performed best, while consumer discretionary (-7.6%), materials (-7.2%) and information technology (-5.8%) lagged the most.

Against this backdrop, the fund declined 0.2% (CHF / B shares) in the month, in line with the benchmark.

Main contributors in the month were Swissquote (+17.5%), Accelleron (+6.7%) and Galderma (+11.7%). Swissquote has built a successful one-stop-shop for retail investors to trade almost any asset. It was the first Swiss bank to introduce crypto in 2017 and the asset class grew to account for 22% of trading income in the boom year of 2021 versus 11% in H1 2024. The Trump election win has propelled crypto to new highs and Swissquote will benefit. Accelleron pursued its ascent. The global supplier of high power turbochargers for the marine and energy markets relies to 75% on aftermarket revenues and benefits from positive demand in all end markets. Galderma reported solid Q3 top line growth of 5.1% and management confirmed FY guidance. A unique sizable pure-play in dermatology, the growth potential of aesthetics injectables and the margin expansion potential remain attractive.

Main detractors in the month were Roche (-7.6%), Clariant (-11.5%) and Huber+Suhner (-8.0%). Roche suffered along the healthcare names from the insecurities following Kennedy Jr.'s nomination at the head of the US department of health. Later in the month Roche announced that the SKYSCRAPER-01 trial did not meet the co-primary endpoint, removing some option value. The Basler group also announced the acquisition of biotech company Poseida for USD 1 bn. Clariant CMD failed to give the share new impetus. Huber+Suhner suffered from profit taking after a strong share price performance and slightly weaker than expected order intake, due to persistent weak environment in transportation, while industrials continue to benefit from a positive environment in aerospace and defence. The company confirmed its FY guidance of positive organic growth and positive margin expansion of 40 to 90 bps.

Positioning & outlook

The Trump effect on single markets and stocks has been very strong during November, both on the positive and the negative side. Not all of the hopes and fears will materialize. We took the road to meet with companies and have held numerous management meetings in the recent two weeks to understand the issues at stake. We have met with existing positions in our portfolio like VAT, Burckhardt, Accelleron, Schindler, Huber+Suhner, Montana and many more but also took the opportunity to revisit other investment cases as dislocations always potentially offer interesting new entry points. As one CEO put it: "it like holding a kite in a hurricane" as there are still a lot of uncertainties around the magnitude and the timing of tariffs, the effects of re-shoring, taxes, labour, inflation etc. Nevertheless some companies are better prepared than others and some business plans are certainly more at risk.

Risk and return profile acc. to SRI

The Fund’s investment objective is to generate attractive and competitive capital growth in the long term. It is therefore particularly suited to investors with an investment horizon of at least 5 years who want to enhance their portfolio diversification with investments in Swiss founder-controlled companies. The Fund displays the typical risks associated with equity investments.

We have classified this product as risk class 4 on a scale of 1 to 7, where 4 corresponds to a medium risk class. The risk of potential losses from future performance is classified as medium. In the event of very adverse market conditions, it is possible that the ability to execute your redemption request may be impaired. The calculation of the risk and earnings profile is based on simulated/historical data, which cannot be used as a reliable indication of the future risk profile. The classification of the fund may change in future and does not constitute a guarantee. Even a fund classed in category 1 does not constitute a completely risk-free investment. There can be no guarantee that a return will be achieved or that a substantial loss of capital will not be incurred. The overall risk exposure may have a strong impact on any return achieved by the fund or subfund. For further information please refer to the fund prospectus or PRIIP-KID.

Liquidity risk

The fund may invest some of its assets in financial instruments that may in certain circumstances reach a relatively low level of liquidity, which can have an impact on the fund’s liquidity.

Risk arising from the use of derivatives

The fund may conclude derivatives transactions. This increases opportunities, but also involves an increased risk of loss.

Currency risks

The fund may invest in assets denominated in a foreign currency. Changes in the rate of exchange may have an adverse effect on prices and incomes.

Operational risks and custody risks

The fund is subject to risks due to operational or human errors, which can arise at the investment company, the custodian bank, a custodian or other third parties.

Benefits

- Above-average top line growth driven by high innovation and strong pricing power.
- Higher operating margins on the back of high market share ("Champion in the niche") combined with good cost discipline.
- More conservatively financed, lower debt exposure and a higher risk capacity compared to non-family businesses.
- Multi-award-winning management team with a long and successful track record investing in owner-run firms.
- Entrepreneurs for entrepreneurs – the Bellevue Group is itself an owner-run company with the majority of shares held by employees.

Inherent risks

- The fund actively invests in equities. Equities are subject to price fluctuations and so are also exposed to the risk of price losses.
- Shares in smaller businesses are generally traded in lower volumes and are subject to bigger price fluctuations than larger enterprises.
- The fund may invest a proportion of its assets in financial instruments that might under certain circumstances have a relatively low level of liquidity, which can in turn affect the fund’s liquidity.
- Succession planning poses an additional risk for owner-run companies.
- The fund may engage in derivatives transactions. The increased opportunities gained come with an increased risk of losses.

You can find a detailed presentation of the risks faced by this fund in the "Special Investment Risks" section of the sales prospectus.
