

UBS US Income Sustainable Equity Fund USD

Performance Review

UBS (Lux) Equity SICAV - US Income Sustainable (USD) (EUR hedged) QL-acc

The US large cap equity market delivered an exceptional performance in 2024, driven by the “Magnificent Seven” stocks, the start of the Federal Reserve’s easing cycle and expectations of pro-business government policies following the Republican election sweep.

Monthly performance

In December the fund performed negatively with 4.5%. The fund lagged the broad US equity market due to poor stock selection, limited exposure to mega cap stocks, as well as exposure to the healthcare sector.

YTD performance

YTD as of the end of December, the fund has delivered a positive performance of 8.6%. Given the strong markets in 2024, the fund lagged the US stock markets due to its defensive positioning by design. Value was also negatively affected by the call overlay and being underweight in AI-driven stocks, as they are not aligned with the theme of high capital returns.

Performance contributors

The communication services, information technology and consumer discretionary sector exposures contributed to the fund’s performance in 2024. At the stock level, the fund profited from holding Ameriprise Financial, Hartford Financial Services Group, NetApp and Booking Holdings.

Performance detractors

The materials sector exposure detracted from the fund’s performance in 2024. At the stock level, the fund was negatively impacted by having minor exposure to Microsoft, Apple and Nvidia and no exposure to Tesla, Amazon or Meta. The call overlay also detracted.

Current investment strategy

We continue to follow our investment approach, investing in high total yield and high-quality stocks and holding a well-diversified and defensive portfolio across countries and sectors. We believe that these factors will add value to the portfolio over the mid to long term.

Risks

UBS Equity Funds invest in equities and may therefore be subject to high fluctuations in value. As these UBS funds pursue an active management style, each fund's performance can deviate substantially from that of its reference index. All investments are subject to market fluctuations. Every fund has specific risks, which can significantly increase under unusual market conditions. The fund can use derivatives, which may result in additional risks (particularly counterparty risk). In distributing share classes, the equity yield, net of fund fees, will be distributed. The distributing (-dist) share classes of this fund intend to distribute capital as well as income (e.g. from dividends). Investors in some jurisdictions may incur a higher rate of tax on distributed capital than on any capital gains which are realized on disposal of fund shares. Some investors may therefore choose to invest in the accumulating (-acc) instead of the distributing (-dist) share classes. Investors may be taxed at a later point in time on income and capital arising on accumulating (-acc) share classes compared to distributing (-dist) share classes. Investors should seek their own tax advice. This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before the recommended holding period disclosed in the PRIIPs KID, if available for this share class.

Please note that additional fees (e.g. entry or exit fees) may be charged. Please refer to your financial adviser for more details. Investors should read the Key Information Document, Prospectus and any applicable local offering document prior to investing and to get complete information of the risks. Investors are acquiring units or shares in a fund, and not in a given underlying asset such as building or shares of a company.
