² YTD: year-to-date (since beginning of the year)

³ Reference Index in currency of share class (without costs)

Cooling inflation, the start of the rate-cutting cycle and strength in AI pushed US equities higher, which provided support to developed market total returns. The extreme concentration experienced in 2023 persisted into 2024, with the Magnificent Seven stocks contributing more than half of the S&P 500's gains.

Monthly performance

In December the fund performed negatively with 3.9%. Stock selection in information technology and industrials detracted, while stock selection in financials and consumer staples added value.

YTD performance

YTD as of the end of December, the fund has delivered a positive performance of 3.5%. Stock selection in information technology and healthcare detracted, while stock selection in financials and consumer staples added value.

Performance contributors

In 2024, Broadcom shares soared after the company reported solid quarterly results due to strong demand for its custom silicon chips. Apollo Global Management shares climbed on the back of strong quarterly results and the announcement of a USD 5bn funding commitment from BNP to expand the company's lending business.

Performance detractors

Our underweight to Nvidia detracted in 2024 as the company benefited from exceptional results due to strong revenue growth in its data centre business and robust demand for Hopper graphics processing units (GPUs). Spectris declined due to concerns about the company's profitability amid operational disruption and softer end markets.

Current investment strategy

Looking ahead, we believe the portfolio is well positioned to benefit from a reversal in earnings momentum as we see an acceleration in earnings growth and positive earnings revisions in areas of the market that have lagged. In this environment, we are focusing on companies with a unique competitive advantage, earnings achievability and a strong management team.

Risks

UBS Sector Funds invest in equities and may therefore be subject to high fluctuations in value. As these UBS Funds pursue an active management style, each Fund's performance can deviate substantially from that of its reference index. Focusing intentionally on individual sectors may entail additional risks. All investments are subject to market fluctuations. Every Fund has specific risks, which can significantly increase under unusual market conditions. The fund can use derivatives, which may result in additional risks (particularly counterparty risk). This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before the recommended holding period disclosed in the PRIIPs KID, if available for this share class.

Please note that additional fees (e.g. entry or exit fees) may be charged. Please refer to your financial adviser for more details. Investors should read the Key Information Document, Prospectus and any applicable local offering document prior to investing and to get complete information of the risks. Investors are acquiring units or shares in a fund, and not in a given underlying asset such as building or shares of a company.
