Global markets continued navigating through uncertainty on growth, potential political shifts emerging from elections and geopolitical tensions. This detracted from returns in the global equity and fixed income markets alike.

² YTD: year-to-date (since beginning of the year)

Monthly performance

In October the fund performed negatively with 2.0%. Both global equities and fixed income performed negatively as the Fed's rate-cutting cycle was repriced. This led to higher yields amid ongoing US economic strength and uncertainty surrounding the US election, which also had a negative impact on equities. Earnings started strongly thanks to positive results from US financials, but the market displayed mixed reactions to reporting in the tech sector.

YTD performance

YTD as of the end of October, the fund has delivered a positive performance of 6.6%. Equities and fixed income have both contributed positively, with equities leading the way thanks to exposure to ESG improvers, EUR ESG leaders and ESG engagement. In fixed income, corporate bonds, multilateral development bank bonds and global high-yield bonds have made the biggest contributions.

Performance contributors

Fixed income made a flat contribution, while equities detracted overall. Positive contributors within fixed income were global high-yield bonds, corporate bonds and multilateral development bank bonds. In the equity space, ESG improvers, ESG leaders and the exposure to the IT sector contributed positively.

Performance detractors

Sustainable bonds, sustainable finance bonds and high-grade bonds were detractors within the fixed income space. In equities, EUR ESG leaders, ESG Engagement and exposure to the US market were the biggest detractors.

The fund may use derivatives which can reduce investment risk or give rise to additional risks (inter alia the counterparty risk). The value of a unit may fall below the purchase price. This share class (mdist) may make monthly, gross-of-fee distributions. As a consequence, in addition to income, this share class may also distribute capital. This can have negative tax consequences for investors in some jurisdictions. Investors should seek their own tax advice.
