

UBS Strategy Fund Balanced Sustainable USD

Performance Review

UBS (Lux) Strategy Fund - Balanced Sustainable (USD) (RMB hedged) P-4%-mdist

The US elections took the spotlight, with Donald Trump being elected president for a second term in a “red sweep”. In the aftermath of the polls, the focus switched to Trump’s potential policy changes with regard to tariffs, immigration, tax cuts and administration picks. Central banks continued the rate-cutting cycle, with the Fed and the Bank of England in particular cutting rates by 25 basis points.

² YTD: year-to-date (since beginning of the year)

Monthly performance

In November the fund performed positively with 2.1%. Trump’s potential pro-growth policy implementations spurred on US and, by extension, world stocks to their best monthly performance of the year. Against the backdrop of the continued rate-cutting cycle, returns on fixed income markets were positive.

YTD performance

YTD as of the end of November, the fund has delivered a positive performance of 7.0%. Both equities and fixed income have contributed positively, with equities leading the way via exposures to ESG improvers and ESG engagement. Within fixed income, corporate and global high-yield bonds have been the biggest contributors.

Performance contributors

Both equities and fixed income contributed to the positive performance. Within equities, ESG improvers and ESG thematic added the most, followed by the allocations to ESG engagement and ESG leaders equities. Meanwhile in fixed income, green social sustainable bonds added value, as did corporate bonds, multilateral development bank bonds and high-yield bonds.

Performance detractors

There were no meaningful detractors in November.

Current investment strategy

Over the course of the month, we implemented a position in 5-year US Treasuries versus cash to position for lower interest rates. We maintained our overweight in US equities at the expense of cash, as well as our overweight in IT equities versus global equities. Currency-wise, we closed the FX basket (long in the AUD, EUR, CHF and GBP versus the USD), and we are now overweight in the USD versus the CNY.

Risks

The fund invests in equities, bonds of varying credit quality and money market securities on a global basis, and may therefore be subject to high fluctuations in value. The fund may use derivatives which can reduce investment risk or give rise to additional risks (inter alia the counterparty risk). The value of a unit may fall below the purchase price. This requires an elevated risk tolerance and capacity. Every fund reveals specific risks, a description of these risks can be found in the prospectus. This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before the recommended holding period disclosed in the PRIIPs KID, if available for this share class.

The monthly 4%-mdist distributing share classes may distribute capital as well as income. It is possible that the distributions result in an erosion of assets and a reduction of invested capital. There are potential negative tax consequences for some investors in some jurisdictions. Investors in some jurisdictions may incur a higher rate of tax on distributed capital than on any capital gains which are realised on disposal of fund shares. Some investors may therefore choose to invest in the accumulating (-acc) instead of the distributing (-dist) share classes. Investors may be taxed at a later point in time on income and capital arising on accumulating (-acc) share classes compared to distributing (-dist) share classes. Investors should seek their own tax advice.
