

UBS Systematic Allocation Portfolio Medium Fund (USD)

Performance Review

UBS (Lux) Strategy SICAV - Systematic Allocation Portfolio Medium (USD) (AUD hedged) P-acc

Global markets continued navigating through uncertainty on growth, potential political shifts emerging from elections and geopolitical tensions. This detracted from returns in the global equity and fixed income markets alike.

Monthly performance

In October the fund performed negatively with 0.7%. Both global equities and fixed income performed negatively as the Fed's rate-cutting cycle was repriced. This led to higher yields amid ongoing US economic strength and uncertainty surrounding the US election, which also had a negative impact on equities. Earnings started strongly thanks to positive results from US financials, but the market displayed mixed reactions to reporting in the tech sector.

YTD performance

YTD as of the end of October, the fund has delivered a positive performance of 9.7%. Equities and fixed income have performed positively. In equities, exposure to the US market is the main contributor. In fixed income, USD high grade and USD corporates are the main drivers of performance.

Performance contributors

Equities and fixed income weighed on performance. In equities, exposure to the US market provided a positive contribution. In fixed income, EUR high yield provided a slightly positive contribution, followed by emerging market (EM) corporates and US high yield, which delivered moderately negative contributions.

Performance detractors

In fixed income, the main detractors were USD high grade and USD corporates. In equities, exposures to the eurozone and EM were the key detractors.

¹ All the figures in above table are target weights. The Portfolio Manager rebalances the portfolio back to the target weights each month end (leaving a flexibility of up to +/-1% deviation from target). The effective weights therefore are very close to the target weights. A breakout of the third party flexible multi-sector bond fund holdings are not included in the bond figures as UBS has no timely and precise look-through into their holdings. Third party flexible multi-sector bond funds are therefore represented by a separate line item in the above table.

Current investment strategy

During October, the fund maintained a high equity allocation, as well as a long active duration stance, targeting a duration of six years within high grade.

Risks

The fund invests in fixed income and equity instruments on a global basis, as well as in alternative investments such as hedge funds. The fund pursues a very active management style and may be subject to high fluctuations in value. The quantitative model is expected to be less effective during periods without notable upswings or downturns. The fund may use derivatives which can reduce investment risk or give rise to additional risks (inter alia the counterparty risk). The fund can invest in less liquid assets that may be difficult to sell in the case of distressed markets. The value of a unit may fall below the purchase price. Investors should therefore have an appropriate risk tolerance and capacity. Every fund reveals specific risks, a description of these risks can be found in the prospectus. This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before the recommended holding period disclosed in the PRIIPs KID, if available for this share class.

Please note that additional fees (e.g. entry or exit fees) may be charged. Please refer to your financial adviser for more details. Investors should read the Key Information Document, Prospectus and any applicable local offering document prior to investing and to get complete information of the risks. Investors are acquiring units or shares in a fund, and not in a given underlying asset such as building or shares of a company.
