² YTD: year-to-date (since beginning of the year)

Global stocks and major fixed income markets delivered positive returns once again in September as the Fed embarked on its widely expected rate-cutting cycle, joining other central banks worldwide in easing the rates environment. Meanwhile, gold continued to outperform.

Monthly performance

In September the fund performed positively with 1.0%. Major global equity markets performed positively, with China leading the rally, whereas Swiss and UK equities lost ground. Most fixed income markets closed the month in positive territory too, despite concerns regarding economic growth.

YTD performance

YTD as of the end of September, the fund has delivered a positive performance of 8.6%. All asset classes have contributed positively in 2024 so far. The main drivers in equities are global opportunity, global high-dividend and global sustainable stocks. In fixed income, high-grade bonds, corporates and emerging market (EM) government bonds have been the main drivers of the positive performance in the year to date.

Performance contributors

Both fixed income and equities contributed positively in September, with the biggest contribution coming from equities. In equities, developed markets ex Switzerland and EM stocks were the main contributors. In the fixed income space, corporate and high-grade bonds contributed the most. Hedge funds also delivered a notably positive contribution.

Performance detractors

Swiss equities were significant detractors in September.

Current investment strategy

We maintained our overweights in EM and Australian government bonds at the expense of US high-grade and Italian government bonds. In addition, we opened a long position in US 5-year Treasuries at the expense of 30-year Treasuries and cash. On the equity side, we remain overweight in IT stocks versus global equities. We are maintaining our position in gold.

Risks

The fund invests in equities, bonds of varying credit quality, money market securities on a global basis, as well as in alternative forms of investment such as hedge funds. It may therefore be subject to fluctuations in value. The fund may use derivatives which can reduce investment risk or give rise to additional risks (inter alia the counterparty risk). The fund can invest in less liquid assets that may be difficult to sell in the case of distressed markets. It therefore cannot be ruled out that the daily issue and redemption of fund units may be suspended temporarily. The value of a unit may fall below the purchase price. This requires an elevated risk tolerance and capacity. Every fund reveals specific risks, a description of these risks can be found in the prospectus. This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money before the recommended holding period disclosed in the PRIIPs KID, if available for this share class.
